Ian Reich

(509) 979-5851 ● ianreich@yahoo.com ● linkedin.com/in/ian-reich

Professional Summary:

Creative and detail-oriented filmmaker with entry-level experience specializing in directing, cinematography, screenwriting, and editing. Experienced leader with excellent organizational skills and successful team supervision. A strong background in bringing compelling stories and documentaries to life using a variety of storytelling and cinematic techniques. Excellent at prioritizing tasks and able to handle high stress situations effectively and with a calm demeanor.

Education:

Eastern Washington University; Cheney, WA

Film and Digital Media, June 2023

- Graduated Summa Cum Laude
- Awarded Jeffers Chertok Dean's Honor Award
- Awarded Best Written Feature Screenplay
- Selected by University's Film Program to be an invited representative to Universal Studios
- Dean's Honor Roll

Work Experience:

United States Air Force

Weather Forecaster, U.S. Air Force, 2016-2021

- Collect, analyze, and integrate atmospheric and space environmental information in military decision-making processes, safeguarding $4.6B in assets.
- Generated 281 weather briefings facilitated movement of 5.3K tons of cargo and 1.2K sorties while deployed.
- Issued over 1.7K advisories, watches, and warnings to alert users of dangerous, inclement, or operationally significant weather events, protecting 13.5K active duty and civilian personnel.
- Responsible for the operation and care of $564K in meteorologic instruments and workstations.
- Briefed mission weather data specifics daily with coworkers, pilots and coordinated with mission leaders from other nations during multi-national mission training.
- Assisted in the development and training of 5 airmen.

.

Specialty Training/Achievements

1W031 Weather Forecaster, United States Air Force Ribbons/Medals for merit include:

- Afghanistan Campaign Ribbon, 2018
- Good Conduct Medal for exemplary performance, 2018
- NATO Campaign Medal, 2018
- Air Force Achievement, 2020, 2021 for outstanding performance in Poland and Germany.
- Airman Basic Training– Honor graduate (top 10%) of initial eight-week course to prepare me for the USAF
- Airman Leadership School (ALS) Training to prepare for the rigors of leadership.

Additional Skills

- Proficient in Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe After Effects, Adobe Audition, MS Suites.
- Demonstrated leader with proven track record in training and motivating. Recognized by leadership for going above and beyond expectations.
- Some proficiency in Polish language.

References provided upon request