SUMMARY

Passionate about films, media, music and digital projects that are as much visually stunning as they are inspiring. Finding a challenging cinematographer/scout or scriptwriters' position in a co-worker friendly environment is my goal. My creativity, problem-solving skills, and experience in film can help further the goals of any future employer. I am open to any and all roles which would allow me to further a career in the film industry and meet my stated objectives.

EDUCATION and DEGREES

- E.W.U. (Eastern Wahington University)

FILM EXPERIANCE

- Best of EWU film 2025.

1. Happiest days of our lives. 2024. Directed by Jon Woodard.

Starred in main male role. First and only ever acting role. I had planned on directing but last minute our acting couple broke up, no longer wishing to work together. Forced to stepped in to lead and the writer moved into the director's position.

2. If the vibes right. 2025 Directed by Alanna Fain.

Lighting, as well as grip and gear. Collected/sourced all lighting and audio equipment. Traveled to back and forth to Cheney, helped find locations.

- Other Films.

3. Crossing. 2025 Directed by Jon Woodard.

Production design, second camera, lighting/gear and grip, audio tech.

4. Divinorum. 2024 Directed by Jon Woodard.

Grip, gear and audio tech and consultant.

5. Protect your melon. 2023 Directed by Taylor Walsdorf

Smith Helmets Commercial. Writer, director, editor, starred and principally shot by Taylor Walsdorf and Kurt Walsdorf (Father).

SKILLS

- Scriptwriting. Cameraman/Cinematographer. Production design. Audio/Sound design. Editing. Project management. Lighting.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

- I-CAN-SHINE volunteering, - 2014, 2017.

5 days, teaching children and young adults with physical and cognitive disabilities how to ride bikes. Probably the best thing I've ever done. Still looking to volunteer with them but Covid derailed the program for a while.
